Dear Joan:

We received no applications for the Lucille Elliott Scholarship, so none was awarded this year. The application forms were sent out in April. If it is offered next year, we should make our announcement earlier in the year. Since no award was given this year, perhaps next year we could offer a larger sum. I would like to suggest that.

I can not tell you about any other awards, as this is the only committee on which I have served.

Perhaps I will see you at the Charleston meeting. However, I do not yet know whether or not I shall be able to attend.

Sincerely yours,

Kathleen Cheape
